

Corma and Lyle Reinke
May 18, 2003
Presented by Marvin Evenson

Lyle is a native of Center, North Dakota; Corma's hometown is Almont, North Dakota (the home of the best lutefisk dinner in the state). They met while they were both attending Dickinson State College.

Lyle and Corma were married in 1959. They have three children and two grandchildren. They moved to Bismarck in 1963. Both Corma and Lyle spent their working careers as teachers and both are now retired.

They joined the Sons of Norway in 1994 and both of them have been active members ever since. They are currently folk dancers, are chairpersons for the annual lutefisk dinner and coordinate Meals on Wheels volunteers. They have also been District IV delegates.

Lyle has been Vice President, President, Past President and Counselor for Sverdrup Lodge and now serves on the nominating committee. He has also helped with a number of special events hosted by the lodge.

In addition to joint activities with Lyle, Corma has also served on the nominating committee, has helped with the annual kid's Christmas program and has coordinated table decoration workers for lode socials. She is also a S/N Singer.

Both plan to continue their active participation in Sverdrup Lodge.

Lyle died at the young age of 69 in 2004; Corma died in 2005 at the age of 66.
